

eastbio
the East of Scotland Bioscience Doctoral Training Partnership

BBSRC
bioscience for the future

absolute antibody

University of St Andrews

FOUNDED 1413

Industrial Biotechnology and Bioenergy

Tuesday 6th December 2016

Biomedical Sciences Research Complex, North Haugh, University of St Andrews, St Andrews, Fife,

Itinerary

10:50—11:15

Welcome coffee

11:15—11:30

Speaker:

Uli Schwarz-Linek

11:30—13:00

Student Presentations (our projects)

13:00—14:00

Lunch and discussion with David Stevenson

14:00—15:00

Open floor discussion

15:00—15:45

Speaker:

Gary Taylor

16:00

Final discussions, future meetings

Farewell

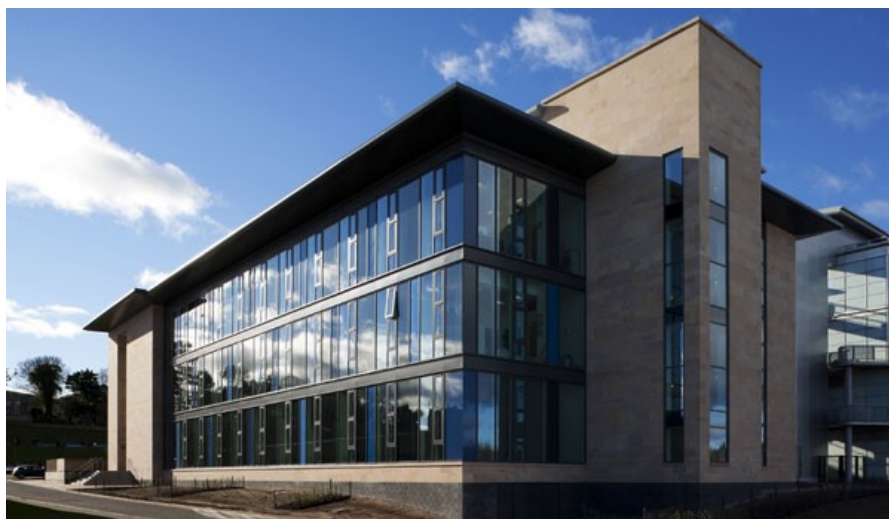

Contact:

Ethan Clayton:

ec66@st-andrew.ac.uk

Uli Schwarz-Linek:

uli.schwarz-linek@st-andrews.ac.uk

Directions:

From the bus station (Red) head down Station Rd, to the car park. Head across/around the car park (Free all day) towards the Gateway Building (Large circular building on the lawns—Blue). Following the signs along North Haugh. Entrance to the BSRC is through the BMS Office (Green) on the west side of the complex.

Contact Ethan for help.

If travelling from Leuchars, the 99, a, b, and c, run every 15 mins heading to the Bus Station.