

SULSA's Antimicrobial Resistance Conference

Thursday 26th - Friday 27th April 2018

Technology and Innovation Centre
University of Strathclyde

A two day conference connecting individuals across the spectrum of research, health, industry and policy to better address the issues surrounding AMR. Guest speakers include...

- Shona Robison MSP (Cabinet Secretary for Health and Sport)
- Professor Neil Gow (University of Aberdeen)
- Professor Mike Turner (Wellcome Trust)
- Professor Ian Gilbert (University of Dundee)
- Dr Deborah O'Neil (Novabiotics)
- Professor Mark Woolhouse (University of Edinburgh)
- Dr Jonathan Pearce (MRC)
- Dr Alison Mather (Quadram Institute)

Followed by a Civic Reception at Glasgow City Chambers and a conference dinner at The Anchor Line (Thursday 26th)

For further details and to register please visit www.sulsa.ac.uk/AMR

*Follow-on AMR seed
funding call!*